1. Direct Claims of the Bible

- The Bible is authoritative in all matters that it addresses
- The Bible actually claims that it is the Word of God
- The Bible claims to be breathed out by God (God-breathed)
- The authors were not inspired, the text of Scripture was inspired
- Peter explains the process
- 2 Pet. 1:21, For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.
- In the OT the Bible asserts that God spoke what was written within its pages over 2000 times, e.g.:
 - Gen. 1:3, And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.
 - Mal. 4:3, And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

 - To be infallible (2 Tim. 3:16-17)
- Scriptures speak with one voice, the voice of God

2. Perfect Unity of The Bible

- How do we know the Bible in its totality is God speaking?

- How can we account for such unity in the midst of this diversity?
 - One author stands behind the whole book
 - That author has breathed it out – that is God Himself
 - A master architect behind the whole project – one temple of Truth
- Take an example of ten men writing a description of an observed event

- Not believing this is like believing that an explosion in a print shop resulting in the printing of the words in the Oxford dictionary with words in the right alphabetical order without a mistake
- The Bible speaks with one voice on every matter that it addresses

3. Reliable Transmission of the Bible

- More than any other book of antiquity the Bible has been passed on to us with great precision
- Reliability of ancient texts is determined by two factors:
 - How many copies do we have of an ancient manuscript?

- What is the time span between when the original manuscript was written and the date of the earliest copy that we have of it?
- Until the 20th century the oldest known OT manuscript was dated to the 10th century AD, a time gap from when the original document was written of about 1400 years
- Discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls in 1947 by a shepherd boy when he tossed a stone into a cave – heard a thud inside the cave
- He investigated and found some scrolls with writing on them
- Subsequently archaeologists found scrolls in 11 different caves
- Found multiple copies of books and fragments of books of the Bible
- 2 copies of Isaiah, entire copy of the Psalms, 1 copy of Leviticus, thousands of fragments of books of the OT (all except Esther)
- Oldest manuscript now 1000 years earlier than before (~ 100-200 BC)
- Affirmed the accuracy of the transmission of the books of the OT
- No other book of antiquity passed down to us so carefully
- The NT is also very accurately preserved
- 6000 copies of early Greek manuscripts of the NT
- 10,000 copies of the Latin Vulgate manuscripts
- 25,000+ NT manuscripts
- Multiple copies in other Syriac and other Semitic languages
- Compare this with other ancient books written at the same time
 - Homer lived 900 BC – time gap between what Homer wrote (600 copies) and the earliest copy of his manuscript is about 500 years
 - For Plato, the time gap is about 1300 years
 - For Caesar (10 copies) the time gap is about 1000 years
- The books of the NT were written from 48 AD to 95 AD
- Earliest fragment of the NT (some verses in John) dated to about 125 AD
 - Time gap of about 30 years from when the Gospel of John was written
- A copy of another book of the NT dated to about 250 AD
- The earliest copy of the whole NT is about 200 years after the books of the NT were written
- NT textual scholars concluded that:
 - 99.99 % of the original writings have been reclaimed
 - Nothing in the other 0.01% substantially affect any Christian doctrine
- This gives us unsurpassed confidence in the accuracy of the Word of God

THE BIBLE

- This book contains: the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the doom of sinners, and the happiness of believers.
- Its doctrine is holy, its precepts are binding, its histories are true, and its decisions are immutable. Read it to be wise, believe it to be saved, and practice it to be holy.
- It contains light to direct you, food to support you, and comfort to cheer you. It is the traveler's map, the pilgrim's staff, the pilot's compass, the soldier's sword, and the Christian's charter. Here heaven is open, and the gates of hell are disclosed.
- Christ is the grand subject, our good its design, and the glory of God its end. It should fill the memory, rule the heart, and guide the feet.
- Read it slowly, frequently, and prayerfully. It is a mine of wealth, health to the soul, and a river of pleasure. It is given to you here in this life, will be opened at the judgment, and is established forever.
- It involves the highest responsibility, will reward the greatest labor, and condemn all who trifle with its contents.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO STUDY THE BIBLE?

Why is God's Word so important? Because it contains God's mind and will for your life (2 Tim. 3:16, 17). It is the only source of absolute divine authority for you as a servant of Jesus Christ.

- It is infallible in its totality: "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple" (Ps. 19:7).
- It is inerrant in its parts: "Every word of God is pure; He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him. Do not add to His words, lest He rebuke you, and you be found a liar" (Prov. 30:5, 6).
- It is complete: "For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book; and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the Book of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book" (Rev. 22:18, 19).
- It is authoritative and final: "Forever, O Lord, Your word is settled in heaven" (Ps. 119:89).
- It is totally sufficient for your needs: ". . . that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work" (2 Tim. 3:16, 17).
- It will accomplish what it promises: "So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it" (Is. 55:11).
- It provides the assurance of your salvation: "He who is of God hears God's words..." (John 8:47; 20:31).
