

A Public Debate on the Question:
Does The God of The Bible Exist?

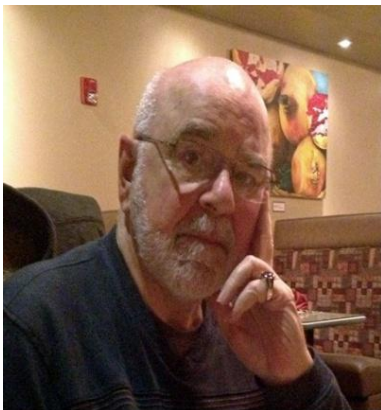

Dr. Heinz Lycklama, a retired Nuclear Physicist, and
Mr. Francis X. Barden, a local historian.

Tuesday, February 26, 7:00 PM

Moderated by Pastor Rick Long,
Atonement Free Lutheran Church
6905 172nd St NE, Arlington, WA 98223

Dr. Heinz Lycklama is a retired Nuclear Physicist who spent over forty years in the high tech industry. He is a Christian Apologist and has given lectures on Creation vs. Evolution, Christian Apologetics and the Biblical Worldview at various venues in a number of countries in North America, Europe, Africa and Asia. Many of his lectures can be found at www.osta.com/messages. Dr. Lycklama will present the affirmative answer to the question in this debate.

Mr. Frank Barden is a retired business owner and has spent the past forty years studying the history of various civilizations and religious beliefs. He considers himself a skeptic who believes there is much we do not know about the history of our religious beliefs, the knowing of which could dramatically change how we view ourselves and others. He will approach the subject from a historical and archaeological perspective, rather than a theological one.

This debate will be held at the Atonement Free Lutheran Church in Arlington on Tuesday, February 26th at 7:00 PM. Rick Long, Senior Pastor of the church, will moderate the debate. Refreshments will be available during the break. The public is invited to attend and will be given the opportunity to ask questions of the debaters. Admission is free.
